

I AM ENERGY

Today I have a brand new glow
For I am energy
I'm full of life
my actions show that I am energy
I fell alive.

Now I can see a brighter future is here for me Nothing can stop me now

TIME IS MINE

Time is an illusion that man has created so if that is a truth then I can also create time for all of my dreams and all of my desires Time is mine
right now is the time to live my life
to make more time for time
to live my life
to take more time for time I now have time to affirm
I now have time to create
I now have time to plan
I now have time to exercise
I now have time to love
I now have time for my family

I now have time to live
I now have time to sing
My affirmations
I now have time to forgive
I now have time to sleep
I now have time to eat
I now have time to dance
I now have time to pray
I now have time to play
I now have time to dream
I now have time to prosper I now have time to be disciplined and I now have time to say that I now take the time for time
